KBM Consultants Experienced 100% Visa Success Ratio For 2014

PAKISTAN NEWS

KBM Consultants proudly announces 100 percent visa success ratio for August 2014 intake for the two most prestigious and renowned universities of Sweden, Jonkoping and Linneaus University. This trend is moving upwards for day by day. More and more students are giving preference and applying to Sweden universities rather than UK universities for quite a number of reasons including schengen visa, fresh bank statements requirement, new avenues for personality building, worldwide acceptable degree, centre of attraction for economics aspect, less tuition fees as compared to other countries, diverse culture and life style, wide-ranging work opportunities in Sweden and Denmark and much more.

KBM Consultants motto is always striving to get the most prominent educational institutions on board, hence giving aspiring students various opportunities to study abroad. KBM Consultants purpose is to provide you with endless opportunities in the field of education and ensure that your dream education destination becomes your future education destination.

KBM Group has recently launched its new venture Work Experience in London aka WEIL under the umbrella of KBM Consultants. Work Experience in London is the training agency of KBM Consultants which gives trainees, young graduates and students the best opportunities in the field of work experience.

This programme is designed to provide you with a period of hands-on practice in a sector of work of your interest which is compatible with the past work experience or your study path. A lot of young and enthusiastic students and graduates are taking part in this programme. Mariana Araque from University of Westminster, Dalila Coppeta and Agnese Banelli from UK having foundation in business did their work experience in London through KBM Consultants WEIL programme.
