OPENING OF KARACHI OFFICE

KBM Consultants have recently launched its office in Karachi in December, 2014. This brings into light another achievement of KBM group in widening its horizons and reaching out to the masses. The main aim of this launch is to help the students of Karachi in getting one to one counseling through the Karachi office for their future study destinations.

This office, too, is equipped with experienced and skilled consultants who are there to provide professional assistance in terms of education consultancy, language consultancy, immigration consultancy, work experience and much more.

Tier 1 Graduate Entrepreneur

UKBA has opened the doors for the students who can apply for Tier 1 Graduate Entrepreneur scheme. It is aimed at recent graduates, who have Tier 4 immigration permission, who have "genuine and credible business ideas and entrepreneurial skills". KBM Consultants will provide their support to the Tier 1 Graduate Entrepreneur candidate from the initial to the finish of the process.

Those who can apply for this visa include students who recently completed their studies in United Kingdom, students with Bachelor's, Master's and PhD degree and when your business idea has been endorsed by the endorsing body.

This visa is beneficial in terms of running one's own business by spending majority of the time developing the business. This allows one to sponsor dependents and by the end of the second year in this category, the migrant can switch into Tier 1 (Entrepreneur).

ITALY

SC INGLESE

KBM Consultants spreads its root to another branch catering the Italian market since 2013 by the name of SC INGLESE. It is the agency of KBM Group offering consultancy services relating to English languages course in UK and in Ireland. SC INGLESE represents hundreds of good quality schools all around the UK and Ireland. All schools are accredited by main awarding bodies such as the British Council and English UK for the United Kingdom and MEI and RELSA for Ireland.

The students contacting SC INGLESE need to improve their English Skills for study or work purposes and are interested in General English Courses, Exam Preparation Courses and Business English Training paths. SC INGLESE also provides all necessary support in finding the right accommodation throughout the students' stays and gives full support before and during the course takes place. For this purpose the staff visits schools and premises and arranges meetings with new partners. SC INGLESE has been visiting two partners in Malta, last November 2013: IVC Malta and EC Schools.

To cater to the changing economic patterns in UK and Italy, SC INGLESE now offers work and study paths for those young people who are looking for ways to enhance their CVs and possibly gain a job in another European Country for which it is cooperating with different agencies based in the UK.

These career path services have also led SC INGLESE to be partner in some important Leonardo Projects which are projects funded by the European Union. SC INGLESE is in fact currently involved in selection activities and management of a big Leonardo Project for Italian Dentists, which will allow 54 young professional doctors to experience some language training and some professional experience in the UK, Spain and Malta. The UK mobilities for this Leonardo programme for dentists called "Traindentin EU Project" will be managed with the help and support of all KBM Group and staff and with a combination of services from both KBM Consultants and KBM British School of English, responsible for the language training part of this EU funded project.

Testimonial

Name: Humna Khalil (UK)

Education: BA (Hons)

Institute: Cardiff Metropolitan University

Experience: My journey with KBM Consultants was highly rewarding as I was guided through each step of the application process into university via an agent. With their assistance I have now enrolled into a degree course with Cardiff Metropolitan University through LSC. By gaining a university degree, I have taken the first step in entering a global workplace."
